

Cricket Manager Pro has been downloaded over 500,000 times

Wicket Gaming AB (publ) can today announce that the company's free-to-play cricket manager game, Cricket Manager Pro, has been downloaded 500,000 times since it was first launched.

The development team around Cricket Manager Pro will be strengthened in the future with additional resources from the Wegesrand Group, which is a direct result of the completed merger between Wicket Gaming and Wegesrand earlier this year. These resources will particularly focus on how to optimize the game to generate revenue, so-called monetization. With the support of the user data obtained from the 500,000 downloads, Wicket Gaming can now prepare the launch of Cricket Manager Pro on iOS – Apple's operating system for mobile devices. This is planned to happen in the near future.

In a comment, Wicket Gaming's CEO, Eric de Basso, says:

"We see continued strong interest in Cricket Manager Pro in the initial key markets. Thanks to the large number of downloads, we can now start focusing on the monetization phase. We are also ready to shortly launch Cricket Manager Pro on iOS and thereby open up additional markets."
